The Edge of Paradise Martin De Lange

Stirred with passion for Turkey's spiritually lost, Martin de Lange uproots his little family and heads north from his native South Africa. Turkey is utterly different, a land where people ask intrusive questions, the government watches every move and men think his wife Petro is a prostitute. Over 15 years Martin gradually becomes fluent in Turkish, setting up Bible distribution networks and pastoring a growing fellowship. But police harassment, loneliness and threats create mounting pressures. Six months after the de Langes were forced to leave Turkey, three of the men Martin recruited are horribly murdered ...
