The Master's Hand: The Art of Carl Heinrich Bloch Dawn C. Pheysey, Richard Neitzel Holzapfel
Carl Bloch's religious paintings are well known to Latter-day Saints. The artwork of this nineteenth-century Danish painter has been featured in Church magazines and in LDS meetinghouses, temples, and visitors centers throughout the world. Published to coincide with a major exhibition of Carl Bloch's work at Brigham Young University's Museum of Art, this book includes ninety-five works by the famed artist. The narrative features a biography of Bloch's life and commentary on each of the images to help us understand how Bloch created these visual relationships with Christ that have inspired millions.
