Unequal Justice, Second Edition Ann Thallemer

When the daughter of one of the town's influential families is brutally murdered and a struggling young builder is arrested, old resentments resurface and fester between the haves and the have-nots. Families are torn apart as people they love are drawn into a web of anger and greed. As the investigation spins out of control, Matt Cahil, Chief of Police struggles against all odds to go by the book. Ben Rigley, a respected attorney jeopardizes his career when he reveals information to Cahil that can stop the cycle of UNEQUAL JUSTICE. A tainted Judge has the opportunity to tip the scales towards justice, but will he? Vindication is what one mother wants as she fights to clear her son's name. The suspenseful drama is fast paced, filled with deeply developed characters and ends with a shockingly surprising twist.
