Have You Got a Piece of This Lawsuit? Roger Parloff

Many will have already heard about the bitterly contested $18.2 billion environmental judgment handed down against Chevron in February by a judge in Sucumbíos province in northeastern Ecuador, an Amazon jungle region where Colombian narcoterrorists go for R&R. What few may yet appreciate is that this controversial case has been financed by a great many investors who don't even realize they've been performing that service for the plaintiffs—maybe even you. Fortune dives into the world of alternative litigation finance, or ALF.
