Her Father's Daughter June Tate

When a former Wren reopens her criminal father's club, can she stay within the law . . . or is she too much her father's daughter? - November, 1945. The night before the grand reopening of Club Valletta, former Wren Victoria Tegliia can't help but wonder what her late father would think – his exclusive club was a hotbed of prostitution, illegal gambling and vice. Victoria plans to run the new Club Valletta along very different lines with her Uncle George, but her mother can see trouble ahead . . .
