Are you unable to make sense of digital marketing? Are You Sure?

Content First Marketing takes the aspiring digital marketer through each of the key tactics that make up a digital marketing strategy and answers such questions as:

- How can I create great content that people will read and share?
- Is Google still relevant?
- What is the digital marketing life cycle?
- What needs to be measured to ensure success?
- How exactly does content lead to new sales?

Stringing these tactics together includes:

- Writing content that readers and search engines love
- Leading with a great headline
- Building authority with social media
- Measuring engagement with email
- Creating low barrier products that lead to core product sales
- Marketing analytics

For professional marketers as well as entrepreneurs and small business professionals, Content First Marketing is an indispensable guide. And John Arnott's upbeat, friendly style is like having a first-rate marketing partner every step of the way.

"This is a powerful, practical book that shows you exactly how to build and maintain a highly profitable online business" – Brian Tracy Author – The Psychology of Selling

"John's eye opening insights hit the strategic points that all companies need. His tips are invaluable to the success of your business...especially the mid-sized companies competing against the behemoths. The headline tool alone was worth reading."
