Primero estaba el mar (Spanish Edition) Tomás González

Definido por la crítica más exigente, desde su aparición en la atmósfera editorial, como el secreto mejor guardado de la literatura colombiana, Tomás González, ahora ¿el secreto a voces...#, logra con esta, su primera novela, vencer el prejuicio de una estructura literaria convencional en el país que se identifica, casi siempre, con el realismo mágico o una realidad convulsionada derivada de un conflicto político y social de antaño. El título proviene de un célebre poema de la mitología Kogui (una cultura precolombina) donde se afirma la existencia de un mar mitológico, que es el origen de todo. La novela se desplaza hacia aquel mar del Caribe colombiano, un mar que a medida que avanza la novela se va tornando hostil, negándose a representar el paraíso utópico en que la pareja protagonista lo ha querido convertir. La naturaleza siempre vence al ser humano en la obra de este magnífico maestro de la concisión literaria. Finalmente la novela es una metáfora narrada con absoluta sobriedad, con estoicismo incluso, que muestra la vida como un árbol frente al mar.
