He's got the costume. But not the character. He's got the claws. But not the compassion. He's got the healing factor. But not the heart. He's everything his dad feared himself capable of being, but never wanted to be — the inverse of the real Wolverine: Cold. Ruthless. Clinically savage. And now he's Norman Osborn's shiny new toy in the Dark Avengers, with unbelievable power at his command — all the way to the tips of his razor-sharp claws.
