Eighteen stories: a novelette, novellas, short stories and poems. Tales of human contact with the unexplainable and the unearthly; contacts that are on occasions deadly, frightening and sometimes enchanting, even protective. Tales of the fairer sex's schemes of avarice: lust, love and terrible revenge; emotions that can attract the wrong kind of unwanted attention. True stories of human survival and of an unusual, perhaps unnatural; friendship of a beautiful female with an extremely dangerous animal. A story of a newly married female's premonition of impending sexual danger, from an unseen presence; a premonition her husband should have heeded. Can we attract unwanted attention by fantasizing "by keeping an open mind? Is leaving an open window in our imagination as risky as leaving an open door into our house "through which anything can enter?
