El burka como excusa (Híbridos) (Spanish Edition) Wassyla Tamzali

Esta obra constituye un rechazo, rotundo y razonado, de cualquier tipo de velo femenino y, a la par, representa una firme crítica, desde un planteamiento feminista, al posicionamiento de la izquierda europea en la reciente polémica sobre el burka.

Wassyla Tamzali analiza la situación actual, en que la regulación del uso del burka en los países europeos se ha convertido en un elemento clave de la vida política. La autora explica cómo se ha llegado a este punto, valora las posiciones de unos y otros y ofrece su punto de vista como mujer que, a pesar de que nunca ha estado velada, comparte la historia del velo con todas aquellas compañeras que no pueden salir a la calle con la cara descubierta.

Sus reflexiones y vivencias personales reflejan la repercusión que las decisiones políticas sobre convivencia multicultural tienen en la vida actual y en el futuro de las mujeres musulmanas europeas y, por extensión, en la de todas las mujeres, tras un siglo de lucha feminista por la conquista de los derechos y las libertades individuales.

Además del texto principal, el libro incluye un detallado informe sobre el eco alcanzado por el debate sobre la prohibición del burka en España y la actividad política que ha suscitado tanto en el ámbito nacional como municipal. Los principales partidos han utilizado el burka como excusa, posicionándose en el bando de la prohibición, la permisividad o la abstención en función de la localidad en que se encontraban y siempre con la mente puesta en ganar algunos votos o, por lo menos, conservar los que ya tenían ante futuras citas electorales en las que la integración de inmigrantes en el marco de una convivencia multicultural constituye uno de los temas clave.
