Jake and Ryan have more than one thing in common. Sure, they're both firemen, but they're also thick and hung and dying to sink themselves deep. Every time Ryan is near Jake he is instantly hard. He can't stop himself when his urges begin to overwhelm him during a playful basketball game. The skin-on-skin contact is too much to handle and he has to dismiss himself to take care of some "personal" business in the shower room. To his surprise, Jake shows up to give him more than a hand. In fact, he gives him everything he's got. Long and thick Ryan takes it all, but both are left dissatisfied when the alarm begins to sound – a family house is one fire and duty will always come first.

What will these two have to do to ease their own burning fire? With an ache in his backside, Ryan knows he has to have Jake again, and he has to have him soon. They might just have to settle for hard and fast against the wall of the house they're fighting to save.
