Glass Patrick Wilmot

A writer in self-imposed exile in London is summoned by the Prime Minister of his former country, inviting him to write the Prime Minister's biography. Back in the modern Caribbean island he once called home, he immediately finds himself thrust into a world of exceptional wealth, power, and corruption. In the midst of this turmoil the writer falls deeply in love. As the love affair advances, the writer's passion for the island resurfaces, until the loss of a close friend propels him to make one final, potentially cataclysmic decision that will change everything.
