Un mar de muerte: Recuerdos de un hijo (Spanish Edition) David Rieff

Como reportero de guerra, David Rieff ha cubierto la mayoría de los conflictos de los últimos veinte años. Sin embargo, la batalla más dura que le tocó presenciar comenzó en la primavera de 2004, cuando a su madre, Susan Sontag, le fue diagnosticada una leucemia incurable que acabaría con su vida ese mismo año. Rieff narra conmovedoramente la experiencia de estar junto a ella -mujer de insaciable curiosidad y con un deseo infinito de vivir- los últimos meses de su agonía y sus propios sentimientos encontrados: la culpa tanto por no ser suficiente consuelo como por apoyarla en la idea de que sería capaz de imponerse a la enfermedad. Recorriendo los diarios y las cartas de su madre que Rieff leyó después de su fallecimiento y los textos de otros grandes escritores sobre la muerte, este libro proporciona un retrato íntimo de los últimos días de Sontag y una profunda meditación sobre la mortalidad. Brutalmente honesto y conmovedor, es una bellísima elegía.
