Life after death. Is it real, or just a fantasy? Dawn Dickenson was on a mission to find out. After her father's death, she tried to contact him on the other side. Unable to do so, she enlisted the help of seven psychic mediums. What would they tell her? Follow her journey as she describes her readings with seven of the most famous psychic mediums in the world, including Allison DuBois, Robert Brown, George Anderson, and Mary Occhino. They provided compelling information about her loved ones in the past, and the possibilities for her family in the future. Decide for yourself if these incredible psychic mediums are really making contact with the other side.
