The Return Of Ka-ron The Knight Donald Allen Kirch
An Ancient Evil Returns!

The "Dark Ships" invaded the skies over the Nown World proclaiming to all to be those of their old masters. "Submit or die!" was their only demand. No one chose to believe them.

The Nowns, according to ancient dogma, were once a noble race killed off by a terrible sickness known as "The Coughing." Great monuments were built in their honor, cities forever forsaken, and even the world named after them in memory. How could these invaders claim to be Nowns?

Horrible and uncaring the invaders brought terrors no one was prepared for. These Nowns were quite different from those of memory or legend. Entire villages began to disappear and those who survived told stories worse than told during "The Lurker War." The world had entered a new dark age.

Her only hope? Jatel, King of Illium and Karen, Queen of Idoshia. Together, ruling their united kingdom, faced their own challenges -- learning the true meaning of "change." From the mysterious land of the Xows an ancient magic awakens giving them all their only chance at freedom.

With war, vampires, fleets of dragons, and the reality of genocide, the Nown World soon faces its greatest darkness and a final glory with "THE RETURN OF KA-RON THE KNIGHT!"
