“Hobart’s Hogsheads” is the first story in the DC Docks crime series, set in Washington DC before, and during, the Civil War era.

Thaddeus Noble sees his boss facing financial disaster until an eagerly awaited shipment of illicit alcohol from France is accidentally replaced by 200 crates of brandy. The unexpected blessing is quite welcome, until the owner of the brandy comes calling and the original hogsheads are nowhere to be found. Hobart’s customers won’t wait forever – if he can’t provide them with their liquor then his whole business is bankrupt. Noble’s innovative solution to the problem shows he is a man with a future in Hobart’s organization.
