Pioneros (Spanish Edition) Willa Cather

Situada en una pequeña localidad de Nebraska a finales del siglo XIX, Pioneros (1913) relata una historia de inmigración y supervivencia cuya figura central es Alexandra, una valiente joven que, a la muerte de su padre, se hace cargo de la familia y que, con su tesón, inteligencia y trabajo, consigue sacar adelante sus tierras desafiando las convenciones sociales sobre el papel de la mujer. Los colonos de Willa Cather, entre los que ella misma vivió, son emigrantes procedentes de todos los rincones de Europa, familias que luchan contra la adversidad en una tierra salvaje y un clima extremado, en su mayoría artesanos que aprenden a cultivar la tierra fracasando una y otra vez. Aquí, como en otras novelas de la autora, son sobre todo las mujeres la fuerza vital e integradora que hace avanzar a toda la comunidad.

Gracias a su capacidad para expresar lo colectivo a través de lo individual, Pioneros constituye una evocación de un país en construcción, de una sociedad que, trabajosamente, va echando raíces.
