Rojo Floyd (Spanish Edition) Michele Mari

Rojo Floyd es un acontecimiento literario único. Una novela hermosa y original, un fervoroso viaje por la galaxia Pink Floyd. Sirviéndose de los recursos del documental tanto como de los más puros artilugios de la ficción, Michele Mari recrea los testimonios de una galería de personajes relacionados con la banda –reales e imaginarios, vivos y muertos– para armar un rompecabezas que se lee con vértigo y emoción. La novela da voz no solo a los integrantes del grupo inglés o a figuras como David Bowie, Brian Jones, Stanley Kubrick o Alan Parsons, sino también a protagonistas de canciones, fans, familiares y amigos. El corazón mítico y sentimental de esta historia es, por supuesto, el “Diamante Loco” Syd Barrett, el misterioso miembro fundador que acaso tuvo que quedar en el camino para que Pink Floyd llegara a ser la leyenda que hoy es. Rojo Floyd es un juego literario divertido, inteligente y audaz, y una de las mejores novelas sobre el rock jamás escritas.

Por esta obra Michele Mari, uno de los autores más prestigiosos de las letras italianas contemporáneas, recibió los premios Frignano 2010 y Procida-Elsa Morante 2010.
