City of God Augustine

The City of God is a book by Augustine of Hippo in the early 5th century AD, dealing with issues concerning God, martyrdom, Jews, and other aspects of Christian philosophy.

The City of God is one of Augustine's major works, a designation that includes The Confessions, On Christian Doctrine, and On the Trinity. Augustine is one of the most influential of the early theologians, eminent Christian teachers, in the West and through Western Christianity. It is believed that The City of God profoundly shaped Western civilization.
