AMLO: Vida privada de un hombre público (Spanish Edition) Jaime Avilés

Este libro empieza con una comida y un decreto. La comida fue en casa de Bernardo Gómez, eminencia gris de Televisa. El decreto lo llevó Emilio Azcárraga, principal accionista de la mayor televisora de habla hispana del mundo, y se lo entregó a Andrés Manuel. El documento, fechado el 2 de diciembre de 2006, decretaba la expropiación de todas las empresas del oligopolio y estaba firmado por el "presidente López Obrador". En esta obra Jaime Avilés analiza diversas etapas de la vida pública y privada del principal dirigente opositor de México, con quien mantiene una estrecha amistad desde 1994. Gracias a la información privilegiada que el autor reunió al elaborar su texto, el lector tendrá variados elementos de juicio para conocer los aciertos y los errores del político tabasqueño, y contrastar su trayectoria con la de los otros aspirantes a la Presidencia de la República. "Esta obra -afirma el autor- podrá cambiar la intención de voto de quienes la lean. También podría alterar el criterio de quienes piensan que no votar es lo más adecuado para un país destrozado como el nuestro."
