Detrás de la lluvia (B de Books) (Spanish Edition) Joaquín M Barrero

Llega el gran thriller histórico de Joaquín M. Barrero. Una recreación magistral de la Asturias de posguerra. Madrid, 1941. Un hombre acusado de cuatro asesinatos se alista en la Legión y luego en la División Azul. Coincidente con la orden policial de captura, un implacable asesino le persigue para matarle. Su rastro desaparece en los helados frentes de Rusia. Lena, Asturias, 1928. Un niño se escapa de casa para buscar, en una cueva de las cumbres de la cordillera cantábrica, un fabuloso tesoro rastreado durante siglos y que nunca existió. A finales de 1937, ya adulto y terminada la guerra civil en Asturias, es echado del hogar. Nunca regresará, ni para reclamar su parte de herencia. Jamás volverá a saberse de él. Dos vidas diferentes, dos destinos perdidos en el misterio que el detective Corazón Rodríguez, en el año 2005, debe encontrar, indagando de nuevo en tiempos desvanecidos. 'Detrás de la lluvia' es una conmovedora novela, policíaca e histórica a la vez, que el lector no olvidará, no sólo por la fuerza de sus personajes, su maestría narrativa y la seducción de su prosa, sino por su asombroso final y el impresionante trabajo del autor en archivos para acompañar su envidiable memoria.
