Broken: Reflections on Humility (Volume 2) Kent Sperry

So often, we go through the motions of faith. We go to church, sing the songs, and bow our head to pray. However, even though we do all the right things, our heart and attitude are displeasing to God. If this is to change, if we're to be acceptable to God, we must first be broken. If we're to be pleasing to him, our heart must be crushed.
